

A woman with long dark hair and glasses, wearing a blue button-down shirt and a dark blazer, is speaking into a microphone on a stage. The background is dark with blue and red lighting. The text 'Brenda Batista' is overlaid in large white font.

Brenda Batista

Over 25 years of creating company culture that inspires employees to bring their best and embrace their leadership prowess.

Entrepreneur

Management
Consultant

Engineer Attorney

Optimize performance through company culture

There are 5 different voices in every company, all of which come with pros and cons. Brenda explains what they are, and why you need to have a little of each to be successful as a team. This ultimately creates a company culture where every voice is heard and valued, so turnover decreases and team performance skyrockets.

Signature talk

Be the Coffee Bean, a Catalyst for Change

Brenda teaches individuals how to boost team performance by creating an inspiring company culture. She shares her 3-step process organizations can follow to: identify the triggers that cause you to act or react; harness the power of your leadership voice to form a supportive and challenging working environment; and recognize the value of each voice's contributions to bring out the best in their team.

ABOUT

Brenda Batista

"Well designed systems can catapult an individual, a team, and a business to an unimaginable level of performance."

Brenda Batista is an accomplished entrepreneur, leader, a management consultant, and the President of Inspiring Company Culture. She is a certified Six Sigma Black Belt, Project Management Professional, and 5 Voices System certified trainer. Over the past 25 years, she has been at the helm of many high performing teams dedicated to performance improvement. Brenda has managed complex multi-million dollar client accounts, created computer simulations to predict business performance, and established a scalable consulting methodology for start-ups and established businesses.

Praise for Brenda

Speaker rating

This topic is timely.

— Sue T.

I can totally relate to what you described because that has happened to me too.

— Stephanie R.

I don't normally like being so introspective, but this was the right mix of me and the team.

— Terry P.

Inspiring Company Culture

Brenda@InspiringCompanyCulture.com

Brenda Mollohan